MEMO TO: County Extension Agents - 4-H and FCS

SUBJECT: District 11 4-H Consumer Decision Making Contest
Thursday, April 17, 2014
109 East Park, Hallettsville, TX

The District 11 4-H Consumer Decision Making Contest will be held on Thursday, April 17, 2014 at the Lillie Appelt Johnson Youth Center, 109 East Park, Hallettsville, Texas. Attached is information and guidelines for the contest.

Special Reminders:
• In order to prepare for the contest, 4-H members should refer to the 2013 4-H Consumer Decision Making Guides. The study guides and additional resources (products for classes) are available at http://texas4-h.tamu.edu/project_consumer/cdm.
• All 4-H Consumer Decision making contestants must register on 4-H CONNECT (on-line registration system). The registration will be open on March 1 through midnight on April 3, 2014. An entry fee of $10.00 per INDIVIDUAL will be charged for the Consumer Decision Making Contest during this registration period.
• Late registration will be allowed from April 4 through midnight on April 11. A late fee of $25.00 will be added for registration during this period. No refunds will be given for any reason!
• Volunteers are needed to assist with the contest. County Extension Agents are encouraged to submit names of volunteers prior to the contest. Additionally, volunteers will be recruited during the participant orientation and should be prepared to serve as a volunteer in the capacity needed (table monitor, timer, etc). Counties with a team should prepare to have at least one volunteer willing to assist with the contest.

This memo serves as your authorization to travel to Hallettsville on April 17, 2014 and charge expenses to your regular monthly travel allowance.

Sincerely,

Donnie Montemayor
