Community Service Opportunity –

As years past, we have selected a community project to pay homage to those that support us and continue to do so. This year Jackson County Archery Club as selected to help our sister state of Louisiana. On August 27, 2020, Hurricane Laura made landfall on the Texas/Louisiana border leaving a path of total destruction behind her. Our club has been collecting nonperishables and monetary dotation's to assist those affected to rebuild their lives. Donations are distributed by local churches. Jackson County Archery club will also choose a family from Angle Tree in Edna Texas and provide money and specific items requested, providing a family with special Christmas this year that would otherwise not have one.
