2021 Updates

- COVID-19 AgriLife guidelines will be followed at the time of the event. MASKS WILL BE REQUIRED.
- Current Coggins test will be required to be uploaded on 4honline!
- To check into and pay for stalls, shavings, and/or RV hookups for day two you must be on the grounds and checked in with the show office by 4:00pm. No stalls, shavings, or RV hookups will be available after this time, until registration opens on day two at 8:00am.

The Stockhorse Division requires a minimum of five (5) total entries for the class to be offered at the show. Contestants will be notified if they register for any of these classes and the classes don't make.

4-Honline: Using the horse show entry worksheet as a guide, participants are to register online anytime from April 30, 2021 through midnight on May 14, 2021. Late registration will be allowed from May 15 through May 21, 2021, for an additional $25.00 fee.

CERTIFICATION: Agents must certify (on 4-Honline) all horse show entries no later than two (2) business days following the close of registration.

If you have any questions, please call. If any accommodations need to be made for a 4-H member, please notify the district office by June 1.

Sincerely,

Donnie Montemayor
